*The list of books and articles by Alfred Adler, his co-workers and students published in English was compiled by the editor. It is naturally incomplete and our readers are invited to furnish us with any additional information which would complete the present bibliography. The abbreviations used are: J - International Journal of Individual Psychology; N - Individual Psychology News; B - Individual Psychology Bulletin; P - Individual Psychology Medical Pamphlets, published by the C. W. Daniel Company, London. Roman figures indicate the volume, Arabic figures the quarters or pages. The division into subject matter may facilitate reference, although the decision was sometimes arbitrarily made and may not always be adequate.
